CITY OF PHOENIX

MAYOR GREG STANTON

Local Companies Step Up With Openings at 100k Opportunities Youth Employment Fair

PHOENIX – Young people will find job opportunities with eight locally based companies in addition to more than two dozen national companies participating in Friday’s 100,000 Opportunities youth employment fair at the Phoenix Convention Center.

Mayor Greg Stanton, Local First Arizona and LocalWork.com announced today that Phoenix-area companies stepping up to offer job openings include Community Tire and Auto; Courtesy Chevrolet; Harkins’ Theaters; Hensley Beverage Distributing; Hubbard Family Swim School; Lovitt-Touche; Nextiva and Pride Group.

"We're thrilled to be involved to showcase great jobs with locally owned companies. Many of these companies are not just looking to fill entry level short-term jobs, but also careers," said Kimber Lanning, founder and executive director of Local First Arizona. "As the country's largest coalition of locally owned businesses, we are proud to be involved and bring some of our best companies to represent the Arizona team!"

Phoenix follows Chicago as the second stop for the 100,000 Opportunities Initiative, a nationwide hand-up effort targeted at "opportunity youth" -- young adults 24 and under who are not working or attending school. Participating companies will offer interviews and more than 1,000 openings at the free event. In addition, Starbucks CEO Howard Schultz and other company leaders will join Stanton to speak with and mentor young job seekers.

"Arizona has a solid labor market that continues to be underutilized," said Ryan Naylor, CEO of LocalWork.com. "This event is exactly what Arizona needs -- more great jobs, for a great talent pool. I am excited to celebrate more job opportunities."

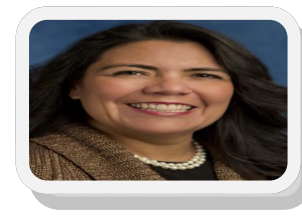

Ed Pastor Pedestrian Bridge Community Update Report

Hello everyone within the Flower Street Block Watch Community.

It is quite heart breaking to all the volunteers who take such pride in this beautiful bridge. It took so long to convince the city to give the bridge to us, but it was Congress Ed Pastor who got the money from US Congress to build this bridge. Don't let these people who does not have any pride in our neighborhood win-out. We the Flower Street Block Watch Volunteers are trying so hard to make our community stand out so people will want to live in community not move away.

I am asking my good neighbors to please help me and our volunteer group to look out for the people who do not care for the Ed Pastor Pedestrian Bridge to call the police or call Evelyn Shapiro at 602-272-8488 and she will let the right people know what is happening.

LAURA PASTOR COUNCILWOMAN OF DISTRICT 4

Dear Flower Street Block Watch Residents:

I am excited to announce that recently the City became the recipient of a $10.3 million TIGER Grant from the US Department of Transportation for the Grand Canals cape Project, which will make much-needed improvements to the multi-use path and better connect bicyclists and pedestrians to jobs, schools, and other means of transit. Work will be starting on this project next year, and it is a great example of how effective intergovernmental partnership can have positive outcomes.

I have attended several GAIN (Getting Arizona Involved in Neighborhoods) events throughout District 4 over the last few weeks, and have been both impressed and inspired by the level of enthusiasm that residents have shown for their communities in support of bringing awareness to and promoting neighborhood safety. I look forward to seeing this level of commitment on behalf of all our communities continue and grow even more.

As always, I am more than happy to hear from citizens from everywhere throughout my District, as we work together to make it and our great City a wonderful place to live, work, play, and do business, my sincerest thanks for everything you do to help make it so, and for being engaged in our wonderful community.

Hello Flower Street Block Watch,

Vice Mayor Daniel Valenzuela Applauds Planned Expansion of Body-Worn Cameras for Police

"On the heels of a big win from our recent federal COPS grant award, the city of Phoenix and our Police Department announced securing a second grant from the U.S Department of Justice for a major expansion of our testing of body-worn cameras on our officers. This new grant to expand testing of body-worn cameras strengthens our efforts to be the most transparent and open police department in the country. I am proud to have had the Maryvale police precinct as the location of our first major pilot of this new police technology. That study showed great promise in improving interactions between residents and our officers. We learned valuable lessons and this new grant to expand our body camera testing puts us on the path to be a national leader in transparency and openness in community policing."
